Part I. Port fees for boats and ships

1. PORT FEES FOR FERRY BOATS AND LINERS

For the carriers, identified by the Estonian Ministry of Economic Affairs and Communications as a result of public procurement and servicing public regular lines between the mainland and West-Estonian islands, prices for port services shall be fixed by Saarte Liinid Ltd on the basis of price offers for the public procurement and they may differ from current Price List. For acquiring the price offer required to participate in public procurement, a carrier shall apply to Saarte Liinid Ltd and provide all necessary details for servicing the boat to be used for a regular line.

Saarte Liinid Ltd shall on the basis of the issued price offer conclude a contract on providing port services with the carrier becoming the winning tenderer at public procurement.

The contract on providing port services shall include:

- Basic port fee (includes fees for dockage and quay for the boats listed in the contract) or separate fees for dockage and for quay for the boats listed in the contract
- Passenger fee
- Waste fee
- Loading/unloading fee
- Conditions for the delivery of bilge water, night soil and refuse

If not stipulated otherwise in the contract, carriers shall pay for power supply, water and other port services according to the actual consumption during a period and the price list in force.
